

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

IN RE CELSIUS NETWORK LLC

Case No. 1:23-cv-02882 (JLR)

ORDER

JENNIFER L. ROCHON, United States District Judge:

The Court is in receipt of a motion from pro se Appellants (“Customer Appellants”) requesting that they participate in electronic case filing in both this case, and the related bankruptcy appeal at 23-cv-05570 (JLR). See ECF No. 19. That request should be directed to the Pro Se Office for the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. As a courtesy, attached to this Order is the form that pro se parties must fill out in order to consent to electronic service. The Customer Appellants are directed to follow the instructions on that form.

The Customer Appellants also request a refund of their filing fees in this case and in 23-cv-05570, and argue only that the Bankruptcy Court waived fees for Mr. Frishberg upon review of his financials. The Customer Appellants have made no showing that such relief is warranted here; they have not provided financial statements under seal, and have made no argument with respect to Mr. Herrmann’s ability to pay. Accordingly, the request is DENIED without prejudice to renewal. The Customer Appellants are directed to communicate with the Pro Se Intake Unit at the Southern District for procedural assistance with their filings. The Unit can be reached at (212) 805-0175.

The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the motion pending at ECF No. 19.

Dated: July 6, 2023
New York, New York

SO ORDERED.

Pro Se (Nonprisoner) Consent & Registration Form to Receive Documents Electronically

Parties who are not represented by an attorney and are not currently incarcerated may choose to receive documents in their cases electronically (by e-mail) instead of by regular mail. Receiving documents by regular mail is still an option, but if you would rather receive them only electronically, you must do the following:

1. Sign up for a PACER login and password by contacting PACER<sup>1</sup> at www.pacer.uscourts.gov or 1-800-676-6856;
2. Complete and sign this form.

If you consent to receive documents electronically, you will receive a Notice of Electronic Filing by e-mail each time a document is filed in your case. After receiving the notice, you are permitted one “free look” at the document by clicking on the hyperlinked document number in the e-mail. Once you click the hyperlink and access the document, you may not be able to access the document for free again. After 15 days, the hyperlink will no longer provide free access. Any time that the hyperlink is accessed after the first “free look” or the 15 days, you will be asked for a PACER login and may be charged to view the document. For this reason, you should print or save the document during the “free look” to avoid future charges.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Under Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Local Civil Rule 5.2, and the Court’s Electronic Case Filing Rules & Instructions, documents may be served by electronic means. If you register for electronic service:

1. You will no longer receive documents in the mail;
2. If you do not view and download your documents during your “free look” and within 15 days of when the court sends the e-mail notice, you will be charged for looking at the documents;
3. This service does not allow you to electronically file your documents;
4. It will be your duty to regularly review the docket sheet of the case.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> The docket sheet is the official record of all filings in a case. You can view the docket sheet, including images of electronically filed documents, using PACER or you can use one of the public access computers available in the Clerk’s Office at the Court.
